

Orchestra of St John's

Privacy statement July 2019

Why do we need your data? - We need to collect and store some details about you so that we can inform you about our concerts and other activities. We will not use your data for any other purpose without your consent.

We only collect the data we need - Usually just your email address, sometimes also your name and postal address and ticket purchasing history. Apart from our mailing lists, our only other lists are of VIPs for purposes of inviting them to receptions. Our website doesn't store credit card details.

All data is stored securely.

Queries and updating/removal of data - At any time you can ask to view, update or correct any data we hold on you. You can also ask that we stop using your data or that we erase it. To make any such request, please send an email to admin@osj.org.uk

By being a member of the Conductors Circle Mailing List you acknowledge and agree to use of your data in accordance with this privacy statement.

Concert email privacy statement

Concert email list: The data we hold for you is limited to your email address. We hold it securely and use it only to contact you about our concerts and activities in and around Oxford, Dorchester and London. Our concert update emails are distributed through Mad Mimi and MailChimp, international email marketing companies. They work with users to ensure compliance with UK data protection legislation. They ensure that all subscriber lists, email content and reports remain private and confidential. Mad Mimi and MailChimp will not sell, rent, loan or invite external access to our contact lists, nor themselves use our contact lists for any purpose. If you wish to be taken off this list please let us know. Alternatively you can unsubscribe at any time using the link included in all concert messages.